Investing in St. Louis: Scottrade partners with Rebuilding Together to “Make A Difference” in the St. Louis Region

Online broker and St. Louis not-for-profit celebrate Make-A-Difference Day with a donation and hundreds of volunteer hours

St. Louis – Oct. 24, 2007 – Scottrade, the St. Louis-based online broker, has partnered with Rebuilding Together – St. Louis to donate time and money to help low-income home owners whose homes are in need of repair. Sixty Scottrade volunteers will be among the hundreds of people who will volunteer on Oct. 27 and 28 for Rebuilding Together St. Louis’s Fall Rebuilding Day, which is held in honor of Make-A-Difference Day, which falls on Oct. 27. In addition, Scottrade has pledged a donation of $6,000 to Rebuilding Together as part of the new partnership.

“Rebuilding Together – St. Louis is a great organization that allows Scottrade to make a difference throughout the entire St. Louis community in as little as one day,” said Jane Wulf, Chief Administrative Officer at Scottrade. “In eight hours or less, our employee volunteers are able to change the lives of these homeowners by making their house a place that they are proud to call home. Scottrade and our associates are proud to partner with Rebuilding Together to truly make a difference in St. Louis.”

The Fall Rebuilding Day marks the 14th year that Rebuilding Together has served St. Louis city and county. Neighborhoods that benefited from previous Rebuilding Days include St. Louis City, Bellefontaine Neighbors, Bel Ridge, Berkeley, Breckenridge

Hills, Fenton, Ferguson, Green Park, Hanley Hills, Jennings, Northwoods, Pine Lawn, Pagedale, Rock Hill, St. John, University City, Upland Parks, Webster Groves and Woodson Terrace.

As part of Scottrade's partnership, company associates also plan to participate in Rebuilding Together's spring Rebuilding Day on April 19, 2008.

"Without the support of sponsors like Scottrade, Rebuilding Together would not be able to help the hundreds of homeowners that we do each year," said Lynne Rajani, executive director for Rebuilding Together – St. Louis.

About Rebuilding Together

Rebuilding Together – St. Louis is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to revitalizing neighborhoods by rehabilitating the houses of low-income homeowners, particularly the elderly and disabled, so that they may continue to live independently in comfort and safety. All materials and services are provided at no cost to the homeowner. Rebuilding Together – St. Louis also rebuilds community centers, playgrounds and other community projects.
