Rebuilding Together-St. Louis names new Executive Director

ST. LOUIS, MO. - Rebuilding Together-St. Louis is honored to announce that Dave Ervin has recently joined the organization as Executive Director.

Ervin comes to Rebuilding Together-St. Louis after a long career in media management. Most recently Ervin was Vice President/General Manager for KMOX Radio. Ervin served as General Manager/Market Manager for CBS Radio St. Louis, Radio One of St. Louis, and the Bonneville St. Louis Radio Group. Ervin has lived in St. Louis for ten years. Ervin served as a media executive in Los Angeles, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit. He is a native of Milwaukee and an alum of the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Dave Ervin has a long history of non-profit affiliations. He was the founding chairman of the Drug Free Southern California organization. He served on Mayor Richard Riordan's Executive Volunteer Council. Ervin has been an active member of the board for the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis. He has worked closely with Mathews Dickey Boys and Girls Club. He joined other St. Louis radio General Managers in the annual "Broadcasters for Babies" March of Dimes fundraising campaign.

"We're excited to have Dave Ervin as our Executive Director," said Board President Paul Williams. "He has a dedication to St. Louis regional improvement and he brings a passion for diversity to the organization. We look forward to increasing our partnership building under Dave's leadership."

The mission of Rebuilding Together-St Louis is to bring volunteers and communities together to improve the homes and lives of low-income homeowners. For more information, call 314.918.9918 or visit www.rebuildingtogether-stl.org.
